

ISLANDWOOD™
A SCHOOL IN THE WOODS

IslandWood Youth Summit!

“Connecting to Place with a Purpose”

:: Friday–Saturday, April 10–11, 2009 ::

HIGH SCHOOL SOPHOMORES & JUNIORS:

Do you remember your experience at IslandWood?

Kissing a banana slug Sleeping in a bunk with only a forest outside your window

Working with a team to get yourselves from tree to tree on cables above the ground

Would You Like to Return? If so, read on:

IslandWood is inviting high school sophomores and juniors who attended our School Overnight Program in elementary school to return for a weekend to:

- Connect with youth and regional service organizations across the region
- Enhance communication, leadership, and group cooperation skills
- Create a plan with a service provider to fulfill your service learning graduation requirement

To Apply: Email an original story, poem, or a song that addresses each of the following:

- What are some of your best memories of IslandWood?
- Did IslandWood change your way of seeing the world, your school, or community?
- Why are you interested in being part of IslandWood’s Youth Summit?

Include your name, address, email, current school, and year/name of school with which you attended the IslandWood School Overnight Program.

Applications due by March 30, 2009.
Space is limited, so apply early!

Send your application/statement of interest to: randyk@islandwood.org
