

A Summary of Fiscal Year 2009

July 1, 2008 – June 30, 2009

BEN KLASKY Executive Director

2009 was a difficult year for nonprofits, and IslandWood experienced many of the same constraints facing communities throughout the country. We responded by sticking with our fundamental programs, and I am proud of what we accomplished in such unprecedented times. We know that the highest performing nonprofits do not hunker down in tough times—they move ahead, responsibly and according to a plan, to position themselves for greater service when the tough times ease up. That was true for IslandWood this year. With your support, we helped 3,530 young people discover their own capacities to make a difference in the environment, their communities, and themselves.

Throughout 2009 we kept our donors, volunteers, and partners informed about our financial situation and asked for their input. In letters, emails, phone calls, and individual meetings we listened to those who know us best. They told us to be careful but bold—be creative without losing our head. With that wisdom, and with unfailing leadership from our Board of Directors, we were able to finish the year with a small surplus without compromising the quality of our service.

Together we weathered 2009, and together we will thrive in the years ahead. We have a dynamic strategic plan with a blueprint for reaching beyond our campus. Your commitment to new experiences for all children, your trust in our leadership and vision, and your generosity are helping make our dreams come true. Thank you for believing in IslandWood and all we can do—together.

IN 2009 ISLANDWOOD:

- :: Served a record number of children in our School Overnight Program (SOP) -- 3,530 students from 78 schools
- :: In partnership with the University of Washington, enrolled 28 IslandWood Graduate Student Instructors who made more than 190 school visits, including 110 visits to low-income schools
- :: Partnered with 14 schools to complete an evaluation study of the SOP
- :: Created new partnerships with Boys & Girls Clubs of King County to explore IslandWood programming away from our physical campus
- :: Teamed with Western Washington University to provide a Sustainability Education Summer Institute (SESI) for educators at IslandWood that served nearly 200 teachers and community educators
- :: Completed an $8 million capital campaign and the construction projects that included a new lodge, enabling us to accept up to 1,000 more children in the SOP and expand our Conference and Milestone Event offerings for adults and families
- :: Attracted 10% more visitors to IslandWood for family events such as Enviro-Explorations
- :: Introduced IslandWood to millions more people across the country through events featuring speakers like Ken Burns and Richard Louv; partnerships with National Geographic Live to co-sponsor lectures at Benaroya Hall and a film series at the Burke Museum; and segments on public television and National Public Radio that were produced by independent journalists and our own media team; and numerous newspaper and magazine stories
