

Scholarship Application

IslandWood is committed to making education more equitable, and the community of educators more diverse. To this end, graduate scholarships are available to applicants who demonstrate financial need or who can enrich the diversity of the education field. IslandWood also has a small fund specifically earmarked for individuals who self-identify as people of color.

Please fill out the following form and email it to the Education for Environment and Community (EEC) Program Scholarship Committee (eec@islandwood.org). Scholarship applications are reviewed on a rolling basis with notification within 4-6 weeks upon receipt of a completed application. Early submission of scholarship applications is encouraged for greater chances of receiving an award.
