Overview:

IslandWood Summer Camps on Bainbridge Campus invites children to discover a new way of seeing nature, themselves, and one another. In doing so, each person comes to understand their ability to change the world for the better. IslandWood operates traditional day camp programs for campers 4 years-old through those entering 9th grade. Running from mid-June through mid-August, these experiences directly address IslandWood's mission of inspiring lifelong learning and environmental and community stewardship.

Position Summary:

Summer Programs Instructors are responsible for leading educational programming using a curriculum guide that integrates science, technology, arts, teambuilding, and adventure learning. IslandWood's Summer Programs serve children entering kindergarten through 9th grade, and include mentoring an undergraduate Summer Programs Intern, and occasionally supervising a teen volunteer.

Responsibilities:

- Develop and teach week-long camp programs for children ages 4-15; including Summer Day Camp and Voices from the Field for students in 7th and 8th grade.
- Abide by IslandWood's safety procedures and protocols as stated in your Summer Camp Instructor Handbook and ensure the safety of participants at all times.
- Serve as a mentor to a Summer Programs Intern.
- Participate and lead portions of staff training
- Attend weekly debrief and prep meetings on Fridays (4:00-5:00 PM).
- Demonstrate IslandWood's core values that enable teams and individuals to succeed with shared respect and purpose.
- Support IslandWood's strategic plan to expand our mission and impact, and commitment to mission, vision, values and goals of IslandWood.
- Commitment to support IslandWood's work towards equity, diversity and inclusion in the workplace.
